Mid Summer Fair.

If the ladies of the Congregational Society ever had a superstitious thought regarding the much abused number 13, it must have been forever laid to rest at the close of the Mid-Summer Fair
last Thursday.

The day was all that could be desired, and early in the morning
the Chapel began its annual process of transformation by the aid of tables and booths.

At two o'clock the tables were well filled with the dainty handiwork of the ladies, aprons, ornamental and useful, pictures and all kinds of fancy articles to attract the visitor. The candy table was well supplied with the famous home-made candies and ice cream and cake proved tempting to many of those who came in for a social hour. The aroma of coffee from the dining room below announced the approach of supper and at six o'clock the tables were filled and many waited for the second announcement.

The well laden tables proved that the committee had met with a generous response to their solicitations. The ladies are very grateful to all who aided in the success of the Fair and to those who gave such generous patronage,
those of our own village people
and those who are seeking refreshment among our healthful surroundings. Many faces have become familiar to us as year by year we meet them, and after the country-dwellers are left to their quiet village life kind thoughts will often go out to our "summer guests" with pleasant anticipations of their return another season.

Prof. and Mrs. Chapman donated a beautiful lamp to the society to be presented to the pastor and wife. Mr. E. C. Bowler made a little presentation speech in a very pleasing manner in behalf of those who contributed, to which Rev. Mr. Gleason responded very graciously.

The closing part of the Fair will be Wednesday evening, when the program as announced by posters
will be rendered.

Illustrated Lectures.

The "Passion Play" as given at Odeon Hall by Rev. J. J. Lewis last Wednesday night was all that the previous evening's entertainment had caused us to hope for.

The illustrations of scenery in the vicinity of Oberammergau, the photographs of the chief actors in this grand drama, together with personal reminiscences of them as friends of the lecturer, and the scenes illustrating the beautiful life of Christ, together with the terribly death on the cross, could but make an impression on all present.

Dr. Lewis in his talk, touched upon the origin of the play, drew a vivid lesson from the true, genuine life and character not only of the seven hundred people who actually participated in the play, but of the remaining population of the little village and placed a striking emphasis upon those marked characteristics which are but the result of pure, devoted, consecrated living.

The lecture was indeed entertaining as well as instructive and helpful, and like the one on the preceding night was one of the highest class entertainments of the kind ever given in Bethel.

On Sunday evening another illustrated lecture was given at the Universalist church the views being of the scenery of Switzerland.
Those who attended it report an interesting evening. It will be concluded at the same church next Sunday night.

The Coming Concert.

Mme. Dora Wiley-Tennis, the famous dramatic soprano who is to sing at Bethel on the 26th inst., has a world-wide reputation, having toured this country many times in opera, concert and comedy, and a year each in Australia and Europe.

Mme. Tennis' method has been pronounced perfect. Her voice flows out in easy, natural tones,
and her enunciation is so distinct,
that it matters little the language
she uses, the words are clear cut and perfectly intelligible. Perhaps her greatest triumphs have been achieved in the "good old English ballads" a line of study which many artists have deemed
"beneath" their notice.

Mme. Tennis says "any one can be taught to sing arias, both simple and difficult, but the consummation of art in singing lies in the ability to sing a 'soul song' with sufficient expression to sway your audience."

Mme. Tennis is at present temporarily located in Bangor, where she is teaching the art of singing.
The proof of her ability in this line lies in the fact that her class numbered fifty-three pupils at the close of the regular season this year in June. During the summer the number has been thirty-one.

She gives four public concerts at City Hall, Bangor, during the year, and the audiences are invariably large. At the last concert, in June, nine hundred people attested their marked approval, notwithstanding the fact that on the same evening the Festival Chorus gave a big reception to Prof. W. R.
Chapman at the Memorial Parlors.

Mme. Tennis is a member of the Schumann Club, an organization composed of the best musicians of the city; and has appeared at its recitals with great success.

At one of the opening concerts at the new Majestic Theatre in Boston, last spring, Mme. Tennis was the soloist and received an ovation.

On February 28, 1903, she appeared as the soloist at the Symphony Concert in Bangor, and the concert was the most successful of any in the history of the organization. We give here the press comments on Mme. Tennis' appearance at this concert:

It would be superfluous if not impertinent, at this late day, to attempt any definite analysis of Madame Tennis' unquestionable abilities,—to mention in detail the sweetness, the flexibility, the range, the volume, the exquisite purity of her clear soprano voice.

The music lovers of the city are aware of all these qualities; they are aware, also, of the long years of training, of the tireless study in the most difficult of all professions which has added to them the perfect knowledge of technique by which they are controlled; and on Friday night City Hall was crowded with a very large, very fashionable, and very discriminating audience, drawn for the sole purpose of welcoming "the sweet singer of Maine" upon her return to the local concert stage.

Excepting at her pupils' concerts
and at a few semi-pupil recitals, Madame Tennis has not appeared before a local audience since her return to Bangor; and her performance of last evening was received by the brilliant gathering in the light of comparison. She sang five widely varied selections—Ah! Perfidio, Scena and Aria from Beethoven, Love's Rhapsody by Bartlett, Gounod's Ave Maria, a slumber song by Robert Friend,
and Good Night, My Little Love,
her own composition. The aria from Beethoven was warmly received; but it was in Ave Maria that the singer achieved her greatest triumph,—for so splendidly was the familiar composition sung that the big audience forgot its proverbial Bangor coldness; forgot that it was present to criticize as well as to approve, and responded with thunders of applause, with genuine cheers, with the waving of many handkerchiefs. It was a scene not often witnessed at a symphony concert.

To summarize, Mrs. Tennis sang with all her old-time brilliancy,
and force, and personal magnetism upon Friday night, and her personal success could hardly have been other than extremely gratifying to a wide circle of friends. Her performance was technically perfect, aesthetically satisfying.

Village Improvement Benefit.

The Village Improvement Society, though practically in its infancy, is a strong, healthy child and its growth has been interesting to all who desire and hope for improvement in our pretty village. It has grown so rapidly during the few months of its existence, and its marks are so scattered about the village that its activity is very noticeable. Old trees have been removed, our streets and sidewalks in many places have been improved, the upper end of the Common has been graded and walks have been made, and if we are not astray in our conclusions, village lawns and door yards have been given a little extra polish, which is of course, due to the improvement atmosphere. This work has been carried on by interested citizens.

To encourage this good work and to swell the amount in the treasury, a grand concert has been planned for next Wednesday evening. This "child of the village" calls for your assistance and who is there among the loyal citizens of our village who will listen to a call of this kind and not respond? It does not cry for help and stop there; in return for the generous help which we are sure will be granted, it offers a delightful evening's entertainment. Talent such as is seldom found in a quiet village among the hills, will render their very best efforts, and you will feel at the close of the evening that you are debtor, indeed, to this society.

Our citizens are and always have been loyal to all home interests. You will not dampen the ardor of this society by your absence Wednesday. Think about it, grow enthusiastic even, if you can, and you can, and when the evening comes be there with all your friends to show your interest in this work and to greet the artists (who so generously give their help) with a ringing applause. Mrs. Dora Wiley-Tennis of whom we speak in another column, will sing with her usual brilliancy; she will be accompanied by Selden T. Crafts of Lewiston. Mrs. Carl A. Hansmann, a well-known contralto of New York, who is spending a few weeks at the Locke House, has kindly consented to help in the evening's entertainment and the otherwise interesting program will be greatly strengthened thereby. Mrs. E. C. Vandonekerckhove who is well-known, and always appreciated by Bethel audiences, will be the reader of the evening.

Eat All You Want.

Persons troubled with indigestion or Dyspepsia can eat all they want if they will take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. This remedy prepares the stomach for the reception, retention, digestion and assimilation of all the wholesome food that may be eaten, and enables the digestive organs to transform the same into the kind of blood that gives health and strength. Sold by G. R. Wiley.

Potent Pill Pleasure.

The pills that are potent in their action and pleasant in effect are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. W. S. Philpot of Albany, Ga., says "During a bilious attack I took one. Small as it was it did me more good than calomel blue-mass or any other pills I ever took and at the same time it effected me pleasantly. Little Early Risers are certainly an ideal pill." Sold by G. R. Wiley.

ALBANY CENTENNIAL.

Albany celebrated its one hundredth anniversary on Wed. Aug. 12. Although the weather was very unpromising in the early morn, yet by eight o'clock the clouds cleared and old Sol shone forth in all his golden glory.

As early as six o'clock many of the committee and their assistants were on the grounds putting on the finishing touches, and at an early hour everything was in readiness for the long anticipated celebration.

The arches which had been raised at each entrance to the grove were tastily draped with red, white and blue bunting and each also bore on one side, the word "Albany" together with the years 1803-1903. On the opposite side of each arch was the word "Centennial." The letters composing these mottoes were of pure white on a deep crimson back ground. Suspended from the center of each arch by red, white and blue streamers, was a crescent of blue bearing on each side the simple word "Welcome" also in white letters.

The stand was prettily draped with bunting and flags, while across the road in front of the grove floated the honored folds of "Old Glory." Take it all in all the grove presented a most festive appearance in its holiday attire.

In the town hall the same color scheme had been carried out. It is safe to say that the old hall was never so gayly bedecked before. It was decorated with flags, bunting and streamers, while beautiful wreaths of evergreen were used here and there with most excellent effect. Scattered about were tastily arranged bouquets of choice flowers and jardinières filled with graceful ferns from the green mossy vale.

On the time honored desk at the head of the hall some one had thoughtfully placed a book in which all visitors to the old hall were respectfully requested to sign their names. We are told that at the close of the day 500 names were quietly reposing on the pages of this record book.

On tables at the right of the entrance were, a goodly number of old time relics. Among them we noticed the following:

Old fashioned foot-stove, two pewter plates, pewter pitcher, first cow bell ever owned in Albany, ancient dash churn, earthen milk pan, a fine collection of ancient dishes, candle snuffers, tin lantern, oil lantern, two ancient flax combs, quite a collection of ancient books, hair covered trunk, and numerous other things.

The crowd began to gather at an early hour and by ten o'clock the grove was well filled. Bryant's Pond Band was in attendance.

At 10:30, President F. G. Sloan gave the signal and the band played several selections in a manner that won the admiration of the entire audience. President Sloan then stepped to the front and in a few well chosen words called for the attention of the audience and the program for the forenoon was opened by prayer by the Rev. William J. Hall, pastor of the Albany church. Mr. Hall is a young man of marked ability and during the two summers spent in Albany he has won the love and respect of all.

Next came the Address of Welcome by Mr. Geo. Cummings which though brief was most appropriate. He said:

Ladies and Gentlemen: It is my special privilege to welcome you here to-day in behalf of the people of the town represented. We are glad to see those who were once among us as citizens and glad of the presence of those from surrounding towns. We are small but we are on the map, and we cordially invite you to avail yourselves of all the features of enjoyment we have been able to provide. Again I would welcome you to our one hundredth anniversary.

The next number was singing of America by the entire audience. The woods fairly rang with the notes of that grand old anthem. Next on the program was speaking by the children. There was a recitation by Gladys Grover, a declamation by Herman Cummings, a declamation by Harry Inman, a declamation by Vivian Lord; and a recitation by Alta Cummings. These children deserve great credit for the manner in which they performed their part of the program. The recitation given by Alta Cummings was written expressly for the occasion by one of Albany's daughters. Below we give it in full:

I am only a little girl
But they tell me that long, long ago
Our town was but a wilderness
I wonder if 'tis so?

It's very wrong to question
Or to doubt, it I suppose,
For my grandma told me all about it
And of course she knows.

But it's hard for me to understand
That once my papa's farm
Was covered o'er with great big trees
That just waved their great arms.

But then of course it must be so
Or they'd never tell to me
So many great, long stories
Of how things used to be.

It may be that where I stand just now
Some great bear made his home;
Or perhaps some pack of hungry
wolves

Through those pleasant fields have roamed.

I wish I could read the history
Of our town when it was new;
But there, I guess they didn't make histories in those days.

They had something else to do.

They tell me that a man named Holt
In our town the first tree cut;
And way up on the top of a hill
He built him a rude log hut.

They say that some of the huts in those early days

Had a blanket for a door,
And that in the rudest of them
The earth served for a floor.

Well I'm glad that in my papa's house
We've got a good strong door
And that when I have to help mamma
I can walk on a nice smooth floor.

I know that I never could go to bed
In a house with a blanket door,
I'd be sure to wake and find around me

Wild animals by the score.

But grandma says more folks kept moving in

Until after a while, a few
Of the people got their heads together
And planned up something new.

They planned by an incorporation
act

To make a town of their land;
Though what an incorporation act is
I do not half understand.

At any rate they tell me
That on June 20th, in 1803,
The land those settlers felt so proud of

Was made a town you see.

God bless those early settlers
And of praise give them good share
And to-night when I go to my little bed,

I'll remember them in my prayer.

I'm glad they settled this dear old town

For if they hadn't, you see
It would still be just a wilderness
And I wonder where my home would be.

Perhaps you folks are getting tired
But I'd like to tell you though
Just a few more of the funny things
Folks used to do before I go.

The first thing of which I'll tell you
That comes into my mind,
Is how the girls wore homespun
frocks

And thought them very fine.

Now don't that seem the funniest
thing

For how do you suppose
That I should feel on this great day
Dressed up in homespun clothes?

Another thing my grandma tells,
I think it beats the band,
It's how when she was a girl and went to church

She carried her shoes in her hand;
And when she got most to the door
She stopped and put them on,
Now don't that beat most all the things

You've heard since you were born?
But the very strangest things
Of which my grandma tells
Is how she wore a poplar bonnet

And thought she looked quite
"swell."

But I must tell you more about it
So please to understand
The bonnet was made of poplar wood
And trimmed with a ribbon band.

Well now I guess I'll leave you Though you'll hate to have me go,
But I'll tell you the rest of the funny things folks did.

In a hundred years or so.

The next number was music by the band. Then came the historical address by A. E. K. Grover. This was a very interesting address especially to the people of Albany and was delivered in a most able manner. Mrs. Grover was assisted by Miss Ida Haselton and Mrs. Lydia Fernald in the collection of the facts for this address. No history of the town has ever been written and the work of collecting the facts was a most difficult one.

Then came more music by the band, after this came the Centennial Poem by Mrs. Alma J. Judkins.

HOUSEKEEPERS

Mrs. S. T. Rohrer, now writing for the Ladies' Home Journal, recommends the use of Earthen Cooking Utensils for the preparation of all dainties, and wherever wholesome food is desired. The following extract has also appeared in the household columns of the Ladies' Home Journal. "The flavor of food baked or boiled in earthenware, is far superior to that of vegetable or animal food cooking in the same way in iron vessels, for the reason that iron is a conductor of heat, while earthenware is a non-conductor. Consequently, food cooked in the latter is rarely, if ever, burned, the degree of heat not varying perceptibly during the process of cooking, thus preserving the flavor of the food as well as uniformity throughout the substance of the meat, vegetables or grain, until the process of cooking is completed." Anyone to be convinced of the

Unsanitary condition of Granite or cheap Enameled Cooking Utensils, has only to notice the odor coming from the bottom of such vessels

even after they have been scoured, and are supposed to be scrupulously clean. This odor in itself is enough to cause anyone to investigate the desired qualities of a more sanitary utensil. "The poisonous substances in enamel are Arsenic, Antimony and Lead. There is no doubt that many of the unaccountable illness that have come to the people, especially after eating fruits and vegetables, boiled or stewed in these dishes—tomatoes, rhubarb, apples, strawberries, etc., have their origin in the disintegration of the enamel, and in the absorption by the food and the poisons. Even where the enamel is commonly applied with skill and understanding, it may happen that a workman may spill an undue quantity of poison into the mixture, and it takes but little arsenic or lead in the human system to cause the most serious and life long stomach trouble." Our vessels fill a long felt want; are perfectly healthful, acid proof, and once used, will never be done without.

Special Introductory Price $2.00 for Set of 5 Pieces.

The special features of our kettles are first and foremost, that it is an ideal Cooking Kettle, suitable for any purpose, and with reasonable use will last longer, and give better satisfaction than any kettle you can purchase; in fact, it is the only earthen kettle that contains fire proof qualities that can be called such. It is mechanically perfect, with a special ventilated bottom, which permits the free circulation of air; consequently, prevents the uneven heating which is the cause of disaster in patterns of cooking ware that have heretofore been offered to the public. It is made exceptionally light, and is really the only sanitary kettle sold. Cooks evenly, never burns. Its lining cannot scale, and in cooking neither can the contents become tainted, or discolored. In the cooking of fruits, especially for canning, it is invaluable, and would be well worth its cost if only used one season. You will find that your fruit will never sour, and if properly sealed, will keep just as well a year afterwards, as the day it was canned. They can also be used in the preparation of food for the sick, and are highly recommended by the foremost Hospitals in the country and abroad. It is not a vessel for special occasions, but is always ready, clean and wholesome, and can be used for any purpose whether for boiling cabbage or the rarest dainties. They are made in two sizes, 2 and 4 quarts.

Our Roaster is a vessel that must not be lost sight of by the economical housekeeper. It appeals to every man and woman, and where once used, will never be done without. In any ordinary roaster, a six pound roast will actually shrink to about four pounds when ready for the table, while if prepared in our roaster, the shrinkage is hardly perceptible. The meat is not dried up on the edges, has all of the juices, and is tender and more delicious than any roast you have ever eaten.

The Pie Pan needs no introduction in the American Household. It is a well known fact that the old stone Pie Pans are the best obtainable. The crust will bake crisp, and without any danger of burning. And again, it is unnecessary to remove the pie from the dish on account of it becoming soggy on the bottom. The pie may remain in one of our pans until used with the assurance that the crust will be as crisp and flaky as the day it came from the oven.

The Bake Pans contain all the advantages mentioned above. Are suitable for baking bread, cake, escalloped oysters, puddings, and any use to which a vessel of this kind can be put, with the assurance at all times, that your food will not be tainted or burned. They have fire proof qualities that are not possessed by any other Cooking Ware, and for ordinary use, a set of ware will last a life time.

YET WE WONDER AT CRIME

Something That Encourages Dark and Deadly Deeds.

THE TOOLS OF BURGLARS

Their Possession Should Constitute a Felony.

"I sincerely trust that it will not require some atrocious murder by a burglar in this city to accomplish a reform which the Police Department has been endeavoring to effect for some time," remarked a headquarters detective sergeant to a Washington Star man.

"A law should be passed making it a felony—a penitentiary offense—punishable by imprisonment for a term between one and five years, for persons of evil repute to be found in the possession of burglars' tools. Such a law exists in other communities, and there is ample requirement for it here.

"While we have been successful when upon an arrest of a man we have found burglars' tools upon him in securing his commitment to jail upon some minor charge, and the courts have always imposed good sentences, a jail sentence is not sufficiently deterring to those men; it should be a severe prison offense. A man who carries burglars' tools is a prima facie criminal, at heart a rascal, and at all times, if need be, a would be or actual murderer.

"So well is it thoroughly understood in cities that the burglar will surely burglarize if he can find the opportunity, and commit murder without compunction, that I am at a loss to understand why our law makers have not enacted the law in question, as the danger is fully appreciated elsewhere. The ever ready burglar is a sneak and a scoundrel, who adds murder as a side issue to his nefarious calling. No sympathy whatever should be shown these men, and, as a police officer, I fully appreciate the sentiment which is gaining ground in this country that burglary should be made a capital offense, and certainly punishable by life imprisonment.

"It is my experience, based upon close contact with criminals for many years, that the short prison sentences these villains usually receive are without avail in curbing their burglarious and murderous instincts. I have had them say to me so many times that I cannot count, 'Well, I will see you when I get out,' and as a rule, once a burglar always a burglar. Society owes it to itself to place these men in confinement and keep them there, for in ninety-nine cases out of one hundred they make good the farewell salutation I have just quoted. We see them again, though we always endeavor to see them first.

"A law such as suggested will largely aid the police in keeping figuratively and literally a tighter grip upon actual and intending law breakers. We do not assert that it will do away with the crime of burglary, but we do insist that it will place a tough class of men out of the way, where they cannot do harm to peaceable citizens. Prevention of crime is as large an element in its ultimate suppression as convictions in the courts. This law must sooner or later be passed for the protection of the citizens of Washington, and it cannot be passed too quickly, in our judgment."

Where the Mississippi Water Goes... Right at this stage of the game the big river is more powerful than the sea, and is making the great Gulf of Mexico take a back seat. Very few people will believe it save those who are familiar with such things, but according to the records of the river engineers the Gulf waters are dominated by those of the Mississippi River right now.

The question has often been asked by persons of an inquiring turn of mind, How far out into the Gulf does the water of the Mississippi go? According to the records, one can at flood tide in the river drink fresh water from the sea fifteen miles beyond the mouth. This seems strange, perhaps, but it is a fact. When the men were at work on the great Eads jetties it was common to see a man dip up a hat full of water from the sea and drink with relish. The force of the current and the volume of it carries the fresh water far into the Gulf, and the river water being so much lighter than that of the Gulf, it remains on the surface for a long time. The discoloration is noticeable for miles out to sea, and the demarcation is as plain as that of the Gulf Stream.—Memphis Scimitar.

Lived in Three Centuries.

Mrs. Myrsala Keith, of Montgomery, Ala., celebrated her 110th birthday on the 7th with religious services at her home. Mrs. Keith was born in South Carolina, but has been living in Alabama since a child. She has lived in three centuries, and has vivid recollections of incidents before the war of 1812. Though in ill health for six years, her faculties are not in the least impaired. She is the mother of thirteen children.

Youngpoppo—You have just got to come out and take dinner with us tomorrow. I won't take 'no' for an answer. Will you?

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also a convincing proof that the kidneys are deranged out of order.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful medicine sent to you absolutely free by mail.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Ninety-nine of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and those disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by G. R. Wiley.

An Irish lawyer having addressed the court as "gentleman," instead of "yer honors," after he had concluded a brother of the bar reminded him of his error. ## Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and expose the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world."

There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take.

IMPORTANCE OF SPEED.

A GREAT FACTOR IN EVERY DAY LIFE.

In these days of rapid progress, one of the most important factors in business and science; in transportation; in sports and in fact almost everything is speed.

Speed is also an important factor in the curative powers of medicine, and it has been proven by an avalanche of testimonials, that the greatest remedy for speed and rapidity in relieving and curing diseases of the kidneys and bladder, blood, liver, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, is DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY.

The speed of this wonderful discovery for diseases of the kidneys and bladder, is not so rapid as to injure and interfere with the other healthy organs of the body; but rather of a gradual uniform speed, consistent with the best results.

If your back pains you; if your urine, after you have deposited some in a glass, and let it stand for 24 hours, has a smoky, milky appearance; if you have a frequent desire to urinate during the night and scalding pains accompany its passage, your kidneys and bladder require instant treatment, by taking Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

The startling results of this renowned remedy, in relieving and curing diseases of the kidneys and bladder have amazed the whole medical world.

Druggists sell it in New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

Doan's Kidney Pills

Relieve the aches of a bad back promptly—cure all kidney and bladder troubles.

Mr. J. E. H. Townsend, of Townsend Bros. carriage manufacturers, of 19 Jefferson street, Bedford, Me., says: "We used Doan's Kidney Pills in our family, and found them a most valuable remedy. There are so many useless remedies on the market that when one is found which experience proves does what is claimed for it, it is a pleasure to endorse that preparation. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at John Berry's drug store, under Hotel Tanager, and the satisfactory results obtained warrants me in making the above statement."

Doan's Kidney Pills sold at all drug stores; 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of a cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for those diseases.

My boy when four years old was taken with colic and cramps in his stomach. I sent for the doctor and he injected morphine, but the child kept growing worse. ## MUSIC FESTIVAL.

On Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 24 and 25, in Rumford Falls, will be heard the most ambitious musical festival yet attempted, with outdoubt, this side of Portland.

The Rumford Falls Musical Festival chorus of fifty voices, having organized by the choice of Hon. G. D. Bisbee as president, Osborne McCounathy of Louisville, secretary, and Eliza Pratt of the Trust company as treasurer, are arranging for a most attractive program, which will be given on Monday and Tuesday evenings, Aug. 24 and 25, and at an afternoon performance on Tuesday.

The artists which have been secured are among the best known vocalists in the country, and among them, Mr. Frederick Martin of Boston, the bass, is an attraction of great note. Mr. Martin is spoken of as one destined to be the greatest bass singer in the country. Indeed, many competent judges consider him to-day the best concert bass we have. Mr. Martin, who has a voice of almost unlimited compass, in deep rich tones, has sung at nearly all the great festivals in the country, with pronounced success. Mr. Martin has twice appeared with Mr. McCounathy in the Louisville Festivals, where his glorious voice and artistic work secured his instantaneous recognition.

Miss Clara Sexton of Boston, the soprano soloist, has succeeded in pleasing Phillip Hale, than whom there is no more critical judge in the musical world, it might almost be said. Mr. Hale, in the Boston Journal, has said: Miss Sexton, first of all, has a voice that is an admirable medium of expression. It is an appealing, wooing, irresistible voice, and there is a spontaneity in the tonal delivery that is as rare as it is refreshing. Her song is a personal appeal, to the hearer.

Mrs. Bertha Cushing Childs, the alto soloist, is well known throughout New England, not only because of her established position as a church and concert singer in Boston, but because of her appearance at numerous times in the principal musical festivals. She has sung with the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston, and is engaged for the festivals in Littleton and Newport, N. H. She will sing this fall at the Worcester, Mass., festival, taking the alto part in Elijah.

Mr. Clarence B. Shirley of New York, the tenor soloist, is but another attraction to this already well nigh perfect galaxy of artists.

As to the Boston Festival Orchestra club, it is the most artistic concert organization in America. George W. Stewart, the manager, is also trombone soloist, and is one of the most conspicuous figures before American music lovers to-day, as he has been engaged by the musical commission of the St. Louis World's Fair to have complete control of its musical features. Mr. Stuart is also manager of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, Stewart's Military Band, the Municipal Music of Boston, and several other most important enterprises.

Of the orchestra, two members, Mr. Davis and Mr. Webster, are natives of this state.

The local chorus, which will include the best voices in the towns of Rumford Falls, Mexico, Dixfield and Buckfield, is under the baton of Prof. Osbourne McCounathy of Louisville, Ky., who is spending the summer in Buckfield. Prof. McCounathy has been connected with all the leading musical festivals throughout the Middle West, and has been prominent in the Louisville musical organizations. He is one of the foremost directors, both of vocal and orchestral associations, in the section of country around Kentucky. Special rates will be given on the railroad for this festival, and as the business men are taking up the matter with the idea of making it a red letter two-days' for shoppers, indications are that the attendance at the concerts will be deservedly large.

Additional information can be secured by reading the advertisement in another section of this issue.

Methodist Episcopal Notes.

Campmeeting at East Poland will commence Monday August 24, and continue one week. Quite a number will attend from this place. The program for this year is exceptionally good, if we can judge from the announcement already made. Reduced rates on the railroads, will be granted.

There is a new arrangement of services at our church for Sabbath eve. Hereafter the Epworth League devotional service will commence at 6:45 p. m. and continue three quarters of an hour in the vestry. After this another service commencing promptly at 7:30 will be held in the audience room. The bell will strike at 7:15 for this second meeting. The nature of the second service will be that of a preaching service in part. The pastor proposes during the fall and winter, to give short addresses on subjects of vital importance to the people. Everybody welcome. If you cannot come to the first service, get in to the other. Subjects to be announced later.

On Sabbath August 23d the pastor will preach from the subject; "In How Far is the Present and Modern Trend of Things in Harmony with the Gospel of Jesus Christ?" An invitation is extended to all to listen to the presentation of this matter.

The pastor will preach at West Bethel next Sabbath, having exchanged dates with Rev. Mr. Gleason who will preach there on August 30th.

There ought to be much earnest effort in opposition to the movement for re-submission. Every christian, and every citizen who loves a good, quiet and morally healthful condition of things, should arouse, and be not found sleeping, lest the enemies of our present, grand prohibitory laws should by any chance prevail. We do not expect them to succeed, yet we must not be indifferent. Let every voter keep informed.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. John Howe whose death was reported in a preceding issue, was born in Greenwood, October 12, 1874, and was the daughter of Charles and Louisa Brooks.

Early in youth she united with the Bryant Pond Baptist church, and has lived a conscientious and devoted Christian life.

On January 1, 1892, she was united in marriage to John F. Howe of Bethel, and the union has been a singularly happy one.

She leaves, beside her husband and two sons, a father, Mr. Chas. Brooks, two brothers, Alpheus A. and Rev. Chas. Brooks, and one sister, Miss Fannie Brooks.

Her family and the community in which she lived have not with a great loss in the removal of this one, who, by her happy and loving disposition, has won for herself a cherished place in the hearts of all who knew her and came within reach of her strong Christian influence.

After prayer at the home by Rev. Mr. Potter, the remains were taken to Bryant Pond, the home of the deceased, where the funeral services were held in the First Baptist church, conducted by Rev. H. A. Brown, the pastor, assisted by H. C. Leach of the Middle Intervale Baptist church.

Only a Mask.
Many are not being benefited by the summer vacation as they should be. Now, notwithstanding much outdoor life, they are little if any stronger than they were. The tan on their faces is darker and makes them look healthier, but it is only a mask. They are still nervous, easily tired, upset by trifles, and they do not eat or sleep well. What they need is what tones the nerves perfect digestion, creates appetite, and makes sleep refreshing, and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Pupils and teachers generally will find the chief purpose of the vacation best subserved by this great medicine which, as we know, "builds up the whole system."

Miss Alice M. Smith, of Minneapolis, Minn., tells how woman's monthly suffering may be quickly and permanently relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain and could find no relief, but one day when visiting a friend I ran across Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,—she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me; I now experience no pain and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change. I use it occasionally now when I am exceptionally tired or worn out."—Miss ALICE M. SMITH, 804 Third Ave., South Minneapolis, Minn., Chairman Executive Committee Minneapolis Study Club.

Beauty and strength in women vanish early in life because of monthly pain or some menstrual irregularity. Many suffer silently and see their best gifts fade away. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps women preserve roundness of form and freshness of face because it makes their entire female organism healthy. It carries women safely through the various natural crises and is the safeguard of woman's health.

The truth about this great medicine is told in the letters from women being published in this paper constantly.

Mrs. C. Kleinschrodt, Morrison, Ill., says:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered ever since I was thirteen years of age with my menses. They were irregular and very painful. I doctored a great deal but received no benefit. A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and after taking a few bottles of it, I found great relief. Menstruation is now regular and without pain. I am enjoying better health than I have for sometime."

How is it possible for us to make it plainer that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will positively help all sick women? All women are constituted alike, rich and poor, high and low,—all suffer from the same organic troubles. Surely, no one can wish to remain weak and sickly, discouraged with life and no hope for the future, when proof is so unmistakable that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure monthly suffering—all womb and ovarian troubles, and all the ills peculiar to women.

Albany Centennial.

President Sloan then introduced one of the oldest men in town, Mr. E. S. Hutchinson who though well along in years, proved fully equal to the occasion and entertained the crowd for some time by remarks of a reminiscent nature and at the close of his remarks sang a temperance song which was much enjoyed by all.

Then came the call to dinner. The procession to the dinner table was led by Rev. William J. Hall closely followed by the band which played a soul stirring march; then came a long line of hungry people eager to partake of the appetizing food with the four long tables were so bountifully loaded. It is estimated that in the two hours given to dinner fully 1000 people were fed and every thing was as free as the birds of the air.

At 2:30 President Sloan again called to order and the afternoon exercises were taken up. Music by the band; after this, President Sloan introduced Rev. Luther McKinney of Bridgton who spoke on the subject of "Old Home Week." This was an eloquent address and Mr. McKinney held the attention of his audience from first to last. He was loudly applauded at the close. Mr. David Cummings a former resident of the town was then introduced and spoke on the early history of the town. Rev. William J. Hall was the next introduced and gave a fine talk on the early history of the church. He was listened to with close attention and made a fine impression on his audience. At the close of his talk the band struck up the beautiful anthem "Nearer My God to Thee." It has never been our lot to hear this anthem rendered in a more beautiful manner. The applause was long and loud and well deserved.

Short speeches were made by Lee Hunt of Gray, U. G. Wheeler of Everett, Mass., and Rev. Zachariah Wheeler. These are all former residents of the town and their remarks were of a reminiscent nature and were much enjoyed by all.

The choir then rendered the selection "A Hundred Years to Come." President Sloan called on the Rev. Zachariah Wheeler to pronounce the benediction and thus closed the one hundredth anniversary of Albany.

NOTE.—In our next issue we shall publish the history as given at the Centennial together with the Centennial poem and a letter from an old resident received too late to be read at the exercises last week.—Ed.

Letter to J. C. Billings.
Bethel, Maine.

Dear Sir: Most mixed paints are either adulterated or short measure. Devoe Lead and Zinc is neither, so it can not be classed with mixed paints. That's why it takes fewer gallons of Devoe to paint a house than it does of a mixed paint, and it lasts longer for the same reason.

Ferguson & Thompson's store, Delhi, N. Y., was painted some years ago with thirty-two gallons of mixed paint.

Painted it last spring with Devoe Lead and Zinc—thirteen gallons did the work.

Devoe Lead and Zinc is here or will be here very shortly. Spread the good news.
